"People sleep peaceably in their beds at night only because rough men stand ready to do violence on their behalf."

—George Orwell (Winston Churchill and Rudyard Kipling expressed similar thoughts, too)

On Memorial Day, remember:

It is the veteran, not the preacher, who has given us freedom of religion.

It is the veteran, not the reporter, who has given us freedom of the press.

It is the veteran, not the poet, who has given us freedom of speech.

It is the veteran, not the campus organizer, who has given us freedom to assemble.

It is the veteran, not the lawyer, who has given us the right to a fair trial.

It is the veteran, not the politician, who has given us the right to vote.

It is the veteran who salutes the Flag,

It is the veteran who serves under the Flag.

These Men I Knew

Who were these men I knew. That I met as strangers and taught what is true.

Laying weeks in a Ranger Grave.

Muddy.

Scared.

Wet.

Lonely.

Huddling for warmth.

Survival doesn't heed the machismo in us.

You could hear the quiet chattering of each other's teeth over the squawk of the field radio. Paralyzed with cramps so painful in the ribs from shaking with chills. I have to sleep and you stay watch. I will tell you when time is up.

Tomorrow we pull out and hump fifty clicks to an attack, Our feet will bleed and our skin will chafe from the dirt on our bodies. The bugs have taken residence in our skin and it burns and itches. Some of us have dysentery and cut holes in our pants so we can relieve ourselves without missing a beat. Haven't had a warm meal in weeks. We look into each other's gaunt faces and sunken eyes and drive on. Keep that rifle clean because that will save your life.

Where else in my life did I see the best and worst of humanity in the same place? Where else in my life did I have to push the envelope on my body and mind so hard for so many months?

It was when I was a Soldier. And I don't need to look for heroes anymore. I have already met them.

The lines above were written by a soldier who served in the Rapid Deployment 7th Infantry Division (LIGHT) in Central and South America, 1987-1990.

PM's solution to workplace violence: don't wear uniforms in public

by Baron Bodissey, 23 May 2013

...This is how Britain shows its pride in its soldiers, who serve their country selflessly, risking their lives and limbs in far-off places for the cause of... of... well, something. Probably the cause of Multiculturalism, which brings diverse peoples together to live in harmony in the UK, each celebrating its unique heritage its own delightful way. Which, of course, is why British soldiers are now required to conceal the fact that they are British soldiers — one of those unique cultural practices imported into Britain is to cut off the heads of infidel warriors. But we can't let a minor issue like that slow down the advance of Multiculturalism, can we?
