Scalia blasts Obamacare ruling: 'Words have no meaning'

by Joel B. Pollak, 25 June 2015

<http://www.breitbart.com/big-government/2015/06/25/scalia-blasts-obamacare-ruling-words-have-no-meaning/>

I'm posting this because I respect Stephen Moore, and it's an interesting idea. But the overarching question is this: What do we do when a leftwing government takes over again, and jacks up the tax rates sky-high? With all the so-called "loopholes" gone, we'll have nowhere to hide our money from the fascist state. I've been asking this question for years, and no one can answer it. —Don John

Rand Paul's Flat and Fair Tax: even better than Reagan plan

<http://news.investors.com/ibd-editorials-viewpoint/062415-758831-rand-paul-flat-and-fair-tax-a-history-making-game-changer.htm?p=full>

I would never fly a Confederate flag. And when historians talk about how many people died to free the slaves, I always count the 360,000 Union deaths—and never the 260,000 Confederates. But there's something really annoying about the way the Grievance Industry has seized upon the murder of nine good and Godly people in order to manufacture a phony crisis similar to the media's bogus "War on Women" in 2012. And of course, nothing is ever good enough for these people (yes, these people: Leftists of all colors). They keep pushing and pushing to destroy liberty, every chance they get. Louis Farrakhan, that vile c#nt, has even called for the abolition of the Stars and Stripes—the flag under which "his people" were freed by a Union Army that was mostly Republican. Peter Wehner's essay is from a dreamland I wish were true; Jack Kerwick's piece is in close touch with reality.

Victory on Okinawa

April 1 to June 21, 1945

The aircraft carrier USS Bunker Hill, after being hit by two kamikaze planes within 30 seconds on May 11. Very heavily damaged, she was repaired in the U.S. and remained afloat (in various classifications) until 1973.

The Battle of Okinawa, codenamed Operation Iceberg, was fought on the Ryukyu Islands of Okinawa and was the largest amphibious assault in the Pacific War. The 82-day-long battle lasted from early April until mid-June, 1945. The battle has been referred to as the "Typhoon of Steel"... http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Okinawa_campaign

Marine aviators at the Battle of Midway

by Mike Johnson, 2 June 2012

http://www.americanthinker.com/2012/06/marine_aviators_at_the_battle_of_midway.html

Owing to the exigencies of battle, many of those in the worst planes knew that death was certain. They did their duty nonetheless.
